The Hawaiian Hardware Co.'s editor tells a good yarn illustrative of the expired session to-day. He makes a serious application of the chestnut, and the whole article will stand reading.

G. Ryan was given a week to get out of the country by Deputy Marshal Mehrten, a few days ago. This morning he was given an additional week to make himself scarce. It will be remembered he was arrested for carrying a deadly weapon, and was supposed to be in with a gang of toughs.

The new Athletic Club has a full complement of members and the first match will take place in a short while. The delay is owing to a suitable hall not being secured. Strictly a Newspaper.

The man was ugly, but the editor of the BULLETIN sized him up in two minutes.

"Is this the newspaper office?" inquired the caller.

"It is," replied the man at the desk.

"Didn't this paper say I was a liar?" and he began prancing.

"It did not."

"Didn't they say I was a thief?"

"It did not."

"Didn't they say I was a scoundrel?"

"It did not."

"Didn't they say I was a bully and braggart and whipped my wife?"

"It did not."

"Well, some paper said it."

"Possibly it was our contemporary in the shanty next door," suggested the editor, as he caressed a paper-weight. "This paper publishes only what is news."—Detroit Free Press.

A Star Coming.

The following item is from the Toledo, Ohio, Commercial:

It is said that Henry E. Dixey's manager has mapped out a tour around the world for that star. He will start from Mexico, taking in the Sandwich Islands, Australia, China, India, Italy, Spain, France, Germany and Russia in succession, and thence to America. You will notice that England does not appear to be on the map. When Dixey tried "Adonis" on the Britishers, the only member of the company who got even a decent notice was Amelia Somerville, as the "Merry Little Mountain Maid."

Hawai Poni.

For pains in the chest there is nothing better than a flannel cloth saturated with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It will produce a counter-irritation without blistering, and is not so disagreeable as mustard; in fact is much superior to any plaster on account of its pain-relieving qualities. If used in time it will prevent pneumonia. 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Gladstone is one of those precocious statesmen whose virility has not gone away with advancing years. He was in Parliament at the early age of twenty-three, but he seems to have more iron in the fire now than he ever had before.

Little Tommy—Say, are you engaged to my sister or are you not? Algonquin (blushing furiously)—I am not, Tommy, but I would like to be. Little Tommy—Come out from behind that door, sis. I knew I'd earn that quarter.—Kansas City Times.

THE LEGISLATURE.

171st DAY.

SATURDAY, JAN. 14, 1893.

Morning Session.

The Assembly met for prayer at 9 o'clock. At 9:20 a quorum being present, the minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Minister Peterson announced that Her Majesty had signed the Lottery and the Opium bills.

Rep. Kamaucha for the members of the House tendered a vote of thanks to the President and officers of the House. Carried.

At 9:22 the House took recess until 11:45.

PROBATION.

The prorogation of the Assembly of 1892-93 by Her Majesty, was set for 12 o'clock. At 11:45 o'clock the President and some members of the Assembly arrived and adjourned for the time being to the office of the Minister of Finance. Ladies and gentlemen arriving were received by Chief Clerk J. A. Hassinger and a corps of gentlemanly ushers, who quickly and quietly placed the guests in advantageous positions. There was a large gathering of the gentler sex, many of them elegantly costumed. His Excellency Major J. Hay Wodehouse, the British Minister Resident, and the diplomatic and consular representatives of America, France, Germany, Portugal, Japan and other countries had seats near the dais. As usual the Band under Prof. Berger and the Household Troops under Captain Samuel Nowlin saluted members of the Legislature and of the diplomatic and consular corps.

Deputy Marshal Mehrten had a detachment of police under his control and their action and bearing received deserved encomiums.

At 12 o'clock Her Majesty left the Palace and, preceded by kahili bearers and escorted by members of her personal staff and of the Governor of Oahu, arrived at the Government House a few minutes after.

Her Majesty did not delay in entering the hall of the Assembly where she was accompanied by Chief Justice Judd, Justice Bickerton, Justice Dole, Judge Whiting, Judge Frear, Colonels Holt, Boyd and Iaukea; Ministers Parker, Cornwell, Colburn and Peterson, and Mesdames Bickerton, Wilson, Clark and Iaukea. On taking position on the platform Her Majesty had Princess Kawananakoa and Kalaianakoa, and Major Robertson, her Chamberlain, on her right, and Governor A. S. Cleghorn on her left. Her Majesty was dressed in a beautiful mauve silk embroidered with rich lace, and wore a tiara necklace and bracelets of diamonds. After prayer by Rev. H. H. Parker the Queen, in a well-modulated, distinct voice read the Royal speech, first in Hawaiian and afterward in English, the reading in both languages occupying about ten minutes. At the close Her Majesty bowed to the audience and withdrew, retiring to the Palace. All of the Hawaiian members of the Legislature were present, and one of them, Rep. White, displayed a star of the Order of Kalakaua. The guests on leaving were supplied with copies of Her Majesty's speech, and by 12:30 o'clock the surroundings of Aliolani Hall assumed the usual quietness, and the end of the Legislature of 1892, the longest on record, had at last been reached. Following is

THE ROYAL SPEECH.

Nobles and Representatives:

More than seven months have elapsed since I opened this Assembly. During that time many changes of Cabinets have taken place. The unprecedented length of the session has involved much labor, and I congratulate you on at last having completed your arduous duties.

The Legislature which has now been placed on the Statute Books will I trust conduce to the advancement of the material interests of the Kingdom, and it gives me pleasure to note that attempts to tamper with the currency and interfere with the established usages of Commerce have been happily averted.

My Ministers will use their best efforts to carry out your intentions as expressed in the numerous Acts which have become law.

The appropriations which you have made are on a liberal scale, and it is the hope of myself and my constitutional advisers that the revenue of the
